

Don't forget to visit the Big Footy while you're there!

Ungarie is home to the Danihers!

The ball, which is five metres long and weighs about 800kg, is a tribute to Ungarie's most famous exports, Aussie Rules legends Terry, Neale, Anthony and Chris Daniher.

War Murals

Ungarie War Murals

If you like images of war and war history the Ungarie RSL Memorial Park is a must to visit. Located within the park is a Giant World Globe depicting theatres of war where Ungarie servicemen and women have served from the War's in the 1890's until present day -highlighting the significance of Ungarie in Australia's war history. The murals are more than 60 metres long, with 46-50 different images from the wars.

The Giant Globe and War Murals were meticulously painted by artist,

Simon White.

Ungarie World Globe

Surrounding the Giant Globe is a remarkable collection of wall murals from the Boer War in the 1890's, WWI, WWII, Vietnam and Iran wars. Born in Melbourne, Vic, Simon is a contemporary artist known for his large scale murals, classic portraits, landscapes, and urban street scenes. Simon completes public and private murals, commissioned paintings and portraits, and has exhibited in solo shows all around Australia
