

A Day Trip to Tallimba

Located 35 kilometres and a lovely 30 min drive southwest of West Wyalong, Tallimba exudes small town charm amidst its rural setting.

Tallimba is a quaint agricultural village surrounded by rich farmland. Tallimba's main focus is sheep grazing and winter cropping.

Sports enthusiasts are well catered for with various facilities, including tennis and cricket grounds, fostering active lifestyles within the community.

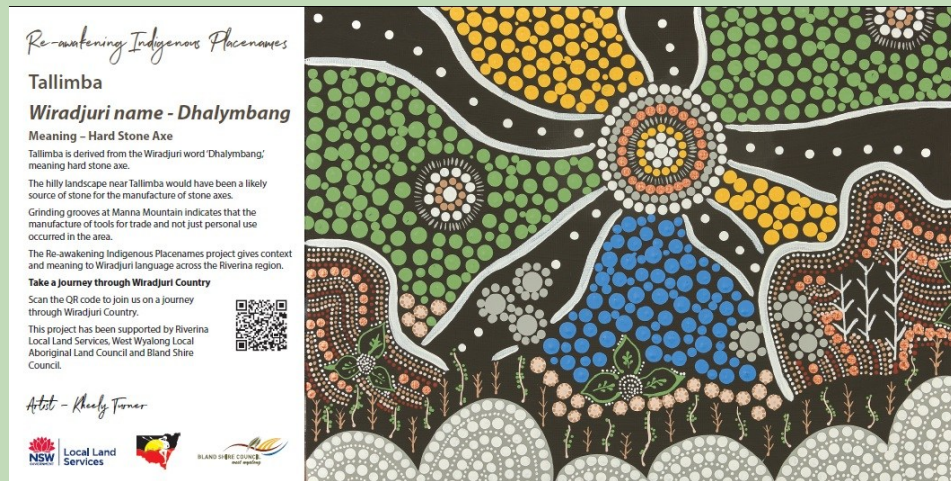

Re-awakening Aboriginal Place Names

Tallimba Wiradjuri Name: Dhalymbang

Meaning: Hard Stone Axe

An initiative of the Riverina Local Land Services, West Wyalong Local Aboriginal Land Council and Bland Shire Council.

The Reawakening of Aboriginal Place Names gives communities the opportunity to unlock past stories, preserve traditions and provide a sense of belonging and identity. The signage was painted by the very talented artist Kheely Turner, a proud Wiradjuri and Ngiyampaa woman.

Tallimba Community Hall

At the heart of Tallimba stands a spacious community hall, serving as a versatile venue for a range of functions and events.

Tallimba Public School

provides education from kindergarten to year 6, complemented by a vibrant playgroup that welcomes young children from the area. A dedicated bus service ensures secondary students have access to schooling in West Wyalong.

Tallimba Inn and Park

The community hub is the Tallimba Inn. Drop in and meet the locals from 3pm Tuesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. Across from the Inn is the public park, which has amenities and BBQ facilities, play equipment and 1/2 court basketball court. Each Anzac Day Tallimba holds a remembrance service in the park, bringing the community together.

Tallimba Harvest Day

Each January, Tallimba bursts to life with its annual Vintage Harvest Day, paying homage to the region's agricultural heritage and offering a nostalgic journey into the past.
